

Brock Stout, Ph.D.

HCD Ph.D. Alumni – Class of 2015

DISSERTATION TITLE:

What will the Neighbors Think?
Perceptions of Failure Intolerance on Individual Entrepreneurial Intention in
Harthe Rural Midwest

Chair: Dr. Heather Annulis

EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Bachelor's Degree

Advertising/Public Relations
Brigham Young Univeristy, 1991

Master's Degree

International Management
Thunderbird American Graduate School for
International Management, 1995

Doctoral Degree

Human Capital Development
The University of Southern Mississippi, 2015

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

- Business
- Economic Development
- Talent Management
- Intercultural Competencies

Dr. Stout has spent half of his adult life in Asia and half in North America. He currently teaches International Business at the Solbridge International School of Business in South Korea. His research covers three streams: talent management, entrepreneurship, and intercultural competency. Current research converges creativity, opportunity recognition, and intercultural stimulus. Dr. Stout is interested in economic development. He enjoys cross-disciplinary research and working with individuals from different backgrounds who have diverse experiences.