

Ginger Robbins, Ph.D.

HCD Ph.D. Alumna - Class of 2012

DISSERTATION TITLE:

A Study of the Effect of Appreciative Inquiry on Student-Course Engagement and Attendance in the Community College

Chair: Dr. Heather Annulis

EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Bachelor's Degree

Educational Psychology
Mississippi State University

Master's Degree

Recreational Therapy
The University of South Alabama

Doctoral Degree

Human Capital Development
The University of Southern Mississippi

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

- Training and Mentoring
- Program Development and Implementation

Dr. Robbins is currently the Registrar for Mississippi College in Clinton, Mississippi. Previously, she served as the Registrar and District Director of Admissions and Records at Hinds Community College, Mississippi's largest community college. Before accepting the Admissions/Registrar position, she served as a Workforce Specialist in the Economic Development and Training Division at Hinds. Ginger also earned the Certified Training and Development Professional designation from the University of Southern Mississippi's Training and Development Certificate Program and is a certified Fitness Counselor, Personal Trainer, and Aerobics Instructor through the Aerobics and Fitness Association of America.