

Jason Golden, Ph.D.

HCD Ph.D. Alumni - Class of 2015

DISSERTATION TITLE:

An Examination of the Volunteer Coordinator's Influence on Church Volunteers' Intent-to-Continue at the Largest Protestant Churches

Chair: Dr. Dale Lunsford

EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Bachelor's Degree

Business and Religion
Mississippi College, 1996

Master's Degree

MBA-Finance
The University of Memphis, 1997

Doctoral Degree

Human Capital Development
The University of Southern Mississippi, 2015

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

- Strategic Planning
- Organizational Leadership
- Developmental Leadership

Dr. Golden currently serves as Executive Pastor at FBC Midlothian Church. Dr. Golden is an experienced, second-chair leader. He possesses a diverse set of business acumen and strong talents in leadership, management, analysis, human capital, and execution. As an organization builder, Dr. Golden understands how to structure, develop, and lead a team. He has been successful at transitioning teams toward new paradigms for ministry. Dr. Golden has designed and implemented various strategies, systems, and processes that have proven foundational at under-girding organizational structure leading to exponential growth. He understands the tension that comes with recruiting and hiring for a rapidly growing staff, as well as the importance of selecting, enlisting, and developing leaders.