

Mamie Griffin, Ph.D.

HCD Ph.D. Alumna - Class of 2012

DISSERTATION TITLE:

Manufacturing Mississippi's Graduates:
An Assessment of Employability Skills as Perceived by Senior Students and
Faculty of Four Year Manufacturing
Related Degree Programs

Chair: Dr. Heather Annulis

EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Bachelor's Degree

Industrial Technology
Texas A&M University - Commerce

Master's Degree

Industrial Technology
Alcorn State University

Doctoral Degree

Human Capital Development
The University of Southern Mississippi

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

- Human Capital for Improvement
- Organizational Performance
- Human Resources

Dr. Griffin is currently Business Faculty in the Higher Colleges of Technology at Abu Dhabi Women's College, Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates. Previously, she taught Manufacturing Technology and Management related courses at Alcorn State University. Her previous work experiences include positions with Cargill Grain, Ergon Refining, Mercedes-Benz, National Youth Leadership Forum on Medicine, and a research fellowship at Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory.

CERTIFICATIONS:

- Six Sigma Green Belt, 2020
- SPSS for Academic Research, 2020